

Online Genealogy Resources

Title and Link	Description
Hingham High School Yearbooks	View online exhibits, collections, and other resources of Hingham Public Library's Special Collections.
Hingham Historical Society	The official website for the Hingham Historical Society: a nonprofit organization that collects, preserves, exhibits, and interprets Hingham's rich history.
Hingham Cemetery	Navigate through the website to search a list of burials or view images of the cemetery, first established in 1672.
Google Books about Hingham	Free books online that pertain to the town and/or citizens of Hingham. A search retrieval sorted by relevance, but can be sorted by date; about 21 pages of results.
City of Boston Archives	The City of Boston Archives provides online exhibits, collection guides, and related information for the records detailing the history of Boston and Massachusetts.
Boston Public Library Databases	A number of databases provided by the Boston Public Library. Includes resources for government records, genealogy, history, biography, and newspapers.
Ellis Island Genealogy Learning Center	A list of websites recommended for genealogical research by the Ellis Island Foundation.
Massachusetts Special Collections Directory	Search the directory to find collections in over 650 libraries, archives, historical societies, and town clerk's offices in Massachusetts.
State Library of Massachusetts	The State Library's digital repository allows users to browse electronic records by communities, then search or browse collections within each community to view records online.
Massachusetts Archives	Website for the government records of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
Heritage Quest	Search the U. S. Federal Census, books, articles, bank records, and other records for genealogical and local history information.

Online Genealogy Resources

Title and Link	Description
FamilySearch	Free genealogical resources. Search the U.S. Federal Census, the Social Security Death Index, passenger lists, and a huge variety of international records including birth and death records, marriage records, military records, school and church records, and other legal documents. Images are available for most documents and users can create a personal family tree.
Ancestry.com	Search birth, death, and marriage records, passenger lists, the U.S. Federal Census, military records, school and church records, and other legal documents like wills, tax lists, and land records to find your ancestors. *Full site is only accessible for free on HPL workstations, but at home users can view limited
Social Security Death Index	Search the U.S. Social Security Death Index records 1935 - present.
The National Archives Research Tools	A list of online research tools, catalogs, and guides.
Library of Congress Digital Collections and Services	Browse online collections, view digital resources, and get online reference services from the Library of Congress.
Hingham Journal	Archives of the Hingham Journal. Newspapers available 2005 - present.
Patriot Ledger	Archives of the Patriot Ledger of Quincy, Massachusetts. Newspapers available 1916 - 1922.
Boston Herald	Archives of the Boston Herald. Newspapers available 1848 - 1992.
Newspapers Online	Database of newspaper archives nationwide, plus some in Canada, England, and Panama from 1700s - present. Requires a subscription, but a 7-day free trial is available.