

Meeting Room Policy (Rev. 1/21/04)

Subject to compliance with the procedures and rules set forth below, organizations, groups, and individuals may use the Library's meeting rooms when they are not needed for administrative use, activities, or programs sponsored in whole or in part by the Library. Permission to use the Library's meeting rooms does not imply Library endorsement of the aims, policies, or activities of any organization, group or individual.

Unless admission is charged or a meeting is limited to a group's membership, any person may attend a meeting as long as that person complies with library policies. Library staff may enter and remain in the meeting room during any meeting.

The Library reserves the right to assess fees for use of the meeting room, and the Library also reserves the right to reject applications for use and to cancel a previously approved use of the meeting room or to require a meeting to be rescheduled at its sole discretion, with or without cause or reason, and without liability. The Library will refund to the applicant any fees paid to the Library in the event the Library initiates the cancellation or if a meeting cannot be rescheduled.
